Comment: It has not been clarified whether Frankenberg or Falkenberg (Alt Lauenwitz) is the former German military airfield, covering an area of about 1,500 meters from west to east and about 1,000 meters from north to south, is located near the eastern exit of Frankenberg, about 2 km from the center of the town. Frankenberg is about 12 km northwest of Chemnitz. The airfield is bordered by the Frankenberg-Falkenberg road to the north. According to the last report of August 1948, the field was to be released for gardening.
